

FIRST YEAR CONTENTS

Following the curriculum of Japanese shiatsu schools, we learn a complete kata from head to toes with the emphasis on learning how to work the whole body and acquiring the best possible, deep and comfortable pressure.

Characteristics of Heisei Shiatsu:

- Pressure: palm, finger and thumb pressure. When to use elbows.
- Thumbs' position: inverted L, in line, A position, V position
- Hands' position: triangle, L-shape, butterfly hands.
- Therapist's positions: basic position, perpendicular, seiza.
- The correct use of the weight of one's body: how to acquire a deep painless pressure
- Heisei Shiatsu and the no-pain principle.

Working on a futon or mattress:

Kata:

- Prone position: shoulders, back, gluteus, legs and feet.
- Supine position: legs, feet, abdomen, neck, head and face.

Students will master working the whole body.

Other katas:

- Full lateral sequence or kata.
- Lateral kata for pregnancy.

Sotai:

- Basic and advanced exercises.
- Articular rotations: toes, ankles, hips, shoulders.
- Therapist's resistance in sotai exercises.

After the first three months students can give shiatsu in our student clinics and later at volunteering events. Attendance at these events is not compulsory, but students need to do a minimum of 12 hours of supervised practice during the first year.
